

Name Pa Mai Mudmee Sin
Teen Daeng Buriram
(Buriram Sin Teen
Daeng Mudmee Silk)

Country Thailand

Date of registration:
12.06.2013

Source: DIP Thailand

Main characteristics/features

Buriram Sin Teen Daeng Mudmee silk (Pa Mai Mudmee Sin Teen Daeng Buriram) is a unique type of cloth. The Mudmee designs stand out with their continuous line patterns weaving across the material and they have a characteristic red border at the top and bottom. Adornments and lace decorations are also attached to make this silk cloth even more distinctive, giving it its unique Buriram style.

Geographical area

Buriram province, located in the lower north-eastern region of Thailand.

Production/processing

Link between product and territory

Silk weaving is a local skill that has been passed down from generation to generation in Buriram. Buriram Sin Teen Daeng Mudmee silk is a well-renowned, very fine quality fabric from this area, which is worn by people attending important events.

Publication in the Official Gazette

Competent authority Department of Intellectual Property
Thailand

GI rights holder/GI association The Queen Sirikit Department of Sericulture

Contact information

Type of product Handicrafts

Control body

File number 58100072

Websites